

MUSEUM OF AMERICAN PRINTING HOUSE FOR THE BLIND MAY AND JUNE PROGRAMS

Bards & Storytellers, 2009:

An arts, folklore, and performance series that explores the history of blind entertainers, this year featuring Patrick Hughes and Jag Einhorn. As part of each program, Doug Boyd, Director of the Oral History Program at the University of Kentucky, will engage in a discussion with the performers, so that the audience will not only have a chance to enjoy their performances, but will learn something about the personal events and forces that have shaped their careers.

May 23rd, 1-2:30 p.m., Patrick Henry Hughes

Patrick Henry Hughes started playing piano as a toddler, and also plays the trumpet and sings. He is a member of the U of L Marching Band, with help from his father (Patrick John Hughes), who tirelessly maneuvers his wheel chair through the band formations. Admission is free but reservations are required. Co-sponsored by VSA-Kentucky. Call 502-899-2365 by May 21st to register.

June 20, 11 a.m.-12:30 p.m., Jag Einhorn
Jagannath Einhorn is a deaf/blind storyteller from Florida who tells stories and poems, and dances in American Sign Language (ALS). A graduate of Gallaudet University, Jag has a wonderful way with his hands, face, and whole body in his native language of ALS. Admission is free but reservations are required. Call 502-899-2365 by June 18 to register.
